

connected. That was not discussed.

SENATOR WESELY: Oh, I see, I see. It doesn't take the place of it, it is just a separate proposal.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I don't know if there is any relationship. I honestly don't know except we do understand they are still interested in that other one, but I don't know its status.

SENATOR WESELY: And the...it's revenue bonds, so the revenue comes from the parking fees...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Parking fees, um-hum.

SENATOR WESELY: ..that are charged.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR WESELY: Will that mean an increase in the parking fees assessed?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I understand not at this point, but there will probably be a different approach to this. They will...they may increase the amount of reserve parking which does cost more money. There is a structure, a fee structure that they will have that varies. So I...but there is not directly to be a parking increase.

SENATOR WESELY: Okay, thank you very much.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Senator Pirsch.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Thank you. I also have some questions for Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Thank you, Madam President.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Senator Wehrbein, this is quite a bit, a chunk of money for a parking garage, is it not, 7.655 million?
